2. Now for ten years we've been on our own, and moss grows fat on a rollin' stone
 But that's not how it used to be when the jester sang for the king and queen
 In a coat he borrowed from James Dean and a voice that came from you and me
 Oh and while the king was looking down, the jester stole his thorny crown
 The courtroom was adjourned, no verdict was returned
 And while Lenin read a book on Marx the quartet practiced in the park
 And we sang dirges in the dark
 The day the music died
 We were singin'... bye-bye... etc.
3. Helter-skelter in the summer swelter the birds flew off with a fallout shelter
 Eight miles high and fallin' fast, it landed foul on the grass
 The players tried for a forward pass, with the jester on the sidelines in a cast
 Now the half-time air was sweet perfume while the sergeants played a marching tune
 We all got up to dance but we never got the chance
 'Cause the players tried to take the field, the marching band refused to yield
 Do you recall what was revealed
 The day the music died
 We started singin'... bye-bye... etc.
4. And there we were all in one place, a generation lost in space
 With no time left to start again
 So come on, Jack be nimble, Jack be quick, Jack Flash sat on a candlestick
 'Cause fire is the devil's only friend
 And as I watched him on the stage my hands were clenched in fists of rage
 No angel born in hell could break that Satan's spell
 And as the flames climbed high into the night to light the sacrificial rite
